How to Assemble Your STEM Extension Application

This is a checklist of the documents each STEM extension applicant is required to submit to USCIS. For more detailed instructions, please refer to the HIO’s handout “Preparing & Mailing Your STEM Application to USCIS” which was sent to you via email, along with your new STEM OPT recommendation I-20.

Assemble your final STEM application from top to bottom as suggested below:

TOP

- Personal Check or Money Order to U.S. Department of Homeland Security with filing fee;
- 2 recent passport photos (taken within the past 6 months);
- G-1145;
- Form I-765 with your original signature;
- STEM OPT I-20 with your original signature;
- Official academic transcript and diploma;
- Copy of current EAD;
- Copy of most recent I-94 record;
- Copy of U.S. visa stamp in your passport (not applicable to Canadian citizens);
- Copy of passport biographical page(s);
- Copies of all pages of all Forms I-20;
- Copy of any previously issued EADs (if applicable)
- Copy of any USCIS approval notices (I-797As) from change of status applications (if applicable);
- A letter of explanation if you are missing previous Forms I-20 (if applicable).

NOTE:

- All application materials must be single-sided and unstapled when you send them to USCIS.
- You may use a paperclip or binder clip to secure your application.
- All copies can be made in black and white, or in color, so long as the information appears clearly.
- In special circumstances, you may receive additional documentation from the HIO to add to your application. You will receive instructions on where this documentation should be placed in your final application.

The HIO provides general guidance on your OPT/STEM OPT application based on information obtained from reliable sources and reflecting our years of experience in working with students. We make every attempt to ensure that we provide you with the most up to date information available. Any advice provided to you by our office (as well as the information in this packet) does not constitute legal advice, however. The OPT application is a personal application for which you are responsible; the application preparation and USCIS case decision will vary depending on the facts at issue in your particular case. The HIO does its best to provide you with the most current guidance, but please be mindful that USCIS may change its interpretation of these policies, procedures, regulations, and eligibility requirements at any time. The HIO is not responsible for any errors or omissions, or for the results obtained from USCIS.
